

Investing in Racine County UW-Extension

Three partners provide core funding for Racine County UW-Extension programming and education efforts:

- (1) the University of Wisconsin System;
- (2) Racine County Government; and
- (3) the United States Department of Agriculture.

Racine County leveraged $461,911 of funding to support UW-Extension educational efforts.

UW-Extension Resources Available
 Family Resource Directory
 Quick List
 Farm Fresh Atlas
 Recycling Guide

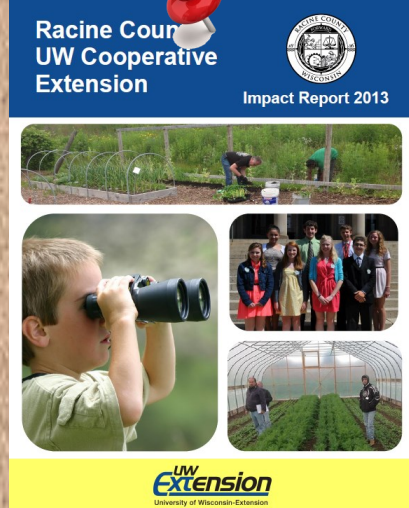

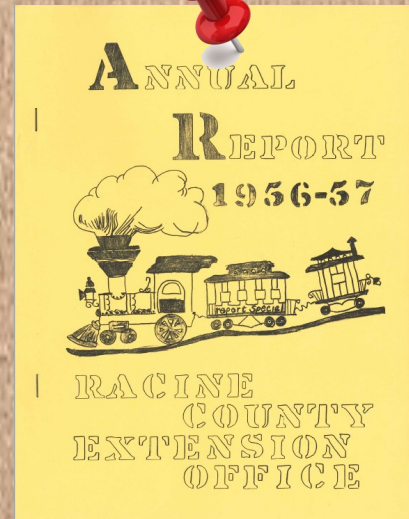

209 North Main Street
 Burlington, WI 53105
 262-767-2929
 Fax: 262-767-2949
 uwextension@racinecounty.com
 racine.uwex.edu

An EEO/AA employer, University of Wisconsin Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title VI, Title IX, and ADA requirements. Please make requests for reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to educational programs as early as possible preceding the scheduled program, service, or activity.

Celebrating 100 Years of Racine County UW-Extension

2017 Annual Report

Youth Development

Teaching life skills to youth through hands-on experiences to prepare them for successful futures where they are actively engaged in their communities and better informed about local issues.

1,062 youth 4-H members

441 4-H youth and adults impacted by retreats and camps

305 adult 4-H volunteers

10 Youth In Governance participants

Agriculture

Providing resources and education to those involved in local agriculture helps to ensure financial and environmental sustainability.

40,000+
82
24

regional residents found local food through Farm Fresh Atlas™ of Southeastern Wisconsin inquiries from farmers and landowners youth certified through the annual tractor safety program

Horticulture

Providing educational programs, diagnosing insect, disease, and environmental problems, and training and coordinating Master Gardener Volunteers.

197 inquiries to the Horticulture Helpline

127 Master Gardener Volunteers, including 11 new volunteers

242 participants in Spring Into Gardening

Family Living

Building strong families, which serve as the foundation for community life, by enhancing family relationships, parenting, child development, financial literacy, and the community institutions that promote family well-being.

554 participants in Book and Block parties

147 youth and families reached through Sunday Jail Programs

41 participants in the Juntos Program

424 parenting education participants

FoodWise

Providing nutrition education programming through delivering information on dietary quality, food safety, and food resource management knowledge and skills.

3,519 learners reached through 16,269 teaching contacts

11,025 indirect education contacts, including the FoodSense newsletter and tip sheets

