As a participant in 4-H Shooting Sports, you have the responsibility of representing Racine County to the public. You are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that will bring honor to you and your family, as well as to 4-H. To do that, you will need to:

1. Attend all sessions in the planned program. If you are not feeling well or have a schedule conflict that would keep you from attending, please tell the adult in charge.
2. Follow rules established before the event begins. You are responsible to know the rules for each event.
3. Dress appropriately for each event. The adult in charge should have guidelines to help you.
4. Use language and manners that will bring respect to you and 4-H Shooting Sports. You are responsible to know what language and behavior is appropriate.
5. Be in the assigned program area (for example: range being used for project) at all times.
6. Know that the use of tobacco, alcohol, and non-prescribed drugs is illegal and prohibited at all 4-H events.
7. Model respect for other persons in public areas.
8. Treat program areas, shooting areas, and transportation vehicles with respect and care. You will be responsible for any damage, theft, or misconduct in which you participate.
9. Help other members in your group have a pleasant experience by making every attempt to include all participants in activities.
10. Live up to your highest expectations for yourself, so you can return home proud of who you are and what you have done.

Those who find themselves unable to conduct themselves within the guidelines listed above may expect:

1. To explain their actions to the adults in charge.
2. To accept the consequences of their actions.
3. To have the adult in charge work closely with parents/guardians, UW-Extension personnel, and others to see that actions taken, in case of unacceptable behavior, are appropriate and logical consequences for all concerns.
