4-H CELEBRATES

THE WEISENSEL FAMILY

Shout-out to Jenny, Mary and Josie for working so hard to support the project spotlight, find volunteers and fill in slots so fairgoers could have as many chances as possible to learn about 4-H!

GEORGE HENDERSON

Thank you, George, for sharing your expertise in woodworking at the county fair! Giving youth hands on experiences is such a great way to promote 4-H!

DEVON COLLERY

Devon did an amazing job sharing about Macrame with fairgoers at the project spotlight! Thank you for giving your time on such a busy week to share about 4-H with fairgoers!

MICHELLE JAMES

Michelle, thank you for sharing your talents and helping fairgoers create beautiful works of art while promoting 4-H! Your time and efforts are truly appreciated!

FALL FORUM

November 6-8, 2026

Fall Forum is a statewide conference that brings 4-H youth and adult leaders together to connect, collaborate, celebrate, and build excitement and energy for a new year of 4-H. It is for youth in grades 7-13, adult volunteers, and staff. It's a great opportunity for youth and volunteers to build their personal leadership skills and make new friends from all across the state. Everyone will leave inspired and ready for a great 4-H year! This year's theme is "Quest for Success."
